Marisa Angelis - Artist Designer Writer Poet Philanthropist Humanitarian Promoter

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

An Artist since early childhood Marisa is a natural and her entire life is revolved in promoting Australia, Multiculturalism, Cultural Diversity, Democracy and Positiveness, on a daily basis.

Her childhood was spent amongst Australia, multiculturalism and diversity and she speaks very basic Greek and has resided and travelled to some parts of Europe, North Africa, South East Asia, North America and parts of Australia and remote, country South Australia.

Initially Marisa Angelis's high school drama teacher started planning Marisa for a career in acting, however, after experiencing and growing through parental alienation, Marisa sought to find her father and so her delving into her ancestry and self discovery began.

Marisa found that her father was a conscripted Vietnam War Veteran (who was later decorated for his compulsory Australian national service), artistically talented and a professional person who migrated to Australia when he was a young child.

After a life changing event at eighteen, Marisa turned to her passion of Arts to help assist her as part of her self rehabilitation and through her love of life and Art, Marisa Angelis has and continues to assist humanity.

ARTIST STATEMENT

"My Art work is my Unique Style and it expresses my Love and Enthusiasm.

Thus far, my God given talent has helped me, humanity, animals, nature and the environment.

My creativity expresses 'Happy Art', fun, educational and motivating and I like to share with people of all walks of life and origins, what I learn, through painting, poetry, writing, design or anything that I put my creative Spirit and Soul into." - Marisa H. Angelis
