

EMBOLISATIONS

What is Embolisation?

Use of various materials (both solid and liquid) to reduce or block blood flow to target organs.

What conditions can be treated using Embolisation?

The following conditions can be effectively treated using embolisation:

- Uterine Fibroids
- Varicocele
- Ovarian Vein
- Tumours

Uterine Fibroids – Indications for Treatment

- Menorrhagia
- Pressure & bloating in Pelvis
- Pelvic Pain

Varicocele Indications for Treatment

- Scrotal Pain
- Unsightly scrotal lump
- Male infertility (successful treatment does not guarantee fertility)

Ovarian Vein – Indications for Treatment

- A dull, constant ache in abdomen
- Varicose veins in vulval region and legs